WEAR THIS
Hexagonal Sunglasses, COS X Yuma Labs

Make a statement without being over-the-top in these COS x Yuma Labs shades. Designed by COS and mindfully made in collaboration with Yuma Labs (a sustainable circular brand which uses recycled plastic to create their chic shades), these hexagonal specs are done in a sun-kissed bronze recycled plastic. Straddling the line between modern and retro, they're a great option for beach or city – and will look equally at home brunching or lounging poolside.

BOOK THIS
Vora, Santorini

These days we have Greece on the brain 24/7. This week, Vora – a beautiful micro hotel in Santorini comprising of just three rooms – has taken top position in our mind's eye. Positioned in one of the most exclusive locations on the island – between Imerovigli and Firostefani – the hotel's structure has been carved into the caves and cliffs, suspended high above the sea – it goes without saying that the Aegean Sea views are quite spectacular. A special, intimate place to stay, with ample privacy, the hotel is Cycladic in design with custom-made furniture and a natural colour palette displayed throughout. With private chefs and bartenders at your service 24-hours a day, not to mention other add ons, such as tailor-made island excursions, private yachting, and caldera candlelight dinners served on your terrace, we're contemplating taking up permanent residency.

Rates from €600 per night.

Sandals, Valentino Garavani

Splicing the practicality of Birkenstocks with the sophistication of strappy sandals, these slip-on slides are a must-pack item. Their intricate leather petals are artfully adorned to create a 3D effect – their construction, a nod to Valentino Garavani's meticulous craftsmanship. Made in Italy, their comfortable moulded footbed and secure double strap makes them practical enough to wear on afternoons spent pavement hitting in new surrounds. These are sandals with street-smarts, and style credentials to boot. The camel hue will go with everything in your suitcase. Make them the focal point of your spring/summer ensemble – we recommend teaming them with a dark denim paperbag waist short.
